About the Trainers

Prof. Andrew Goodman practises at 1 Chancery Lane, London and is a Master of the Bench of Inner Temple. He has been an arbitrator since 1988, a CEDR mediator since 1993 and travels internationally in that capacity and as a mediation advocate, trainer, advisor and consultant to governments, judiciaries, Bars and companies. Andrew is widely recognized as a thought leader in the field of mediation. He is Convenor of the Standing Conference of Mediation Advocates, Director of the Association of Mediation Assessors, Trainers and Instructors and a member of the Bar ADR Panel, (and was, until January, 2019) the Independent Standards Commission of the International Mediation Institute and Co-Chair of the IMI Mediation Advocacy Appraisal Sub-Committee. He is currently a visiting mediation and dispute management trainer to the Hong Kong, Nepal, Istanbul, Ankara, Antalya and Izmir Bar Associations and the Judicial Academy of the Nepal Supreme Court, the Nepal International ADR Centre, the Thailand Arbitration Centre, and the Lagos Multi-Door Courthouse. He is an advisor on mediation to the Turkish Ministry of Justice, the Turkish Court of Cassation and the High Council of Justice in Brussels.

Andrew is a Faculty trainer for the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and an ArbEx panel arbitrator and conciliator. His areas of professional practice extend to commercial, property, construction, oil and gas, partnership, franchising, professional negligence and farming disputes. He has been recommended as a leading junior in professional indemnity work and mediation in the Legal 500 for 23 years (qualifying for the Legal 500 'Hall of Fame') and for four years was listed in Chambers Directory as a leading practitioner in ADR. He is currently Professor of Conflict Management and Dispute Resolution Studies at Rushmore University, a sometime visiting lecturer on the LLM/MA courses in Dispute Resolution at UCL and SOAS, University of London, and a peripatetic lecturer in mediation at 10 other UK universities; he is a visiting lecturer in arbitration and mediation at the Dubai Real Estate Institute, a guest lecturer to the University of Ghent LLM Alumni Association and a sessional lecturer at Mandela Institute, University of the Witwatersrand. In 2019 he will be lecturing at the Zealand Business School, Denmark.

Between 2007-2010 he was Director of Mediation Training for the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors and led the CMC approved RICS mediator training courses in the UK and abroad until 2013. He was a guest lecturer on ADR for the Lord Chancellor's Visiting Chinese Lawyers' Fellowship Programme and has trained in mediation and conflict management and contracts management in the UAE, Kuwait, Oman, Nigeria, Turkey, Hong Kong, Malaysia, the Netherlands, Nepal, Thailand, India, Poland, Germany, France and Belgium; he advises governments, judiciaries and NGOs on mediation advocacy in Belgium, Croatia, Nigeria, Ghana, India, Singapore, Thailand, Kurdistan and the People's Republic of China. He speaks widely on the subject both on an in-house and open basis.

Andrew is a senior mediator at the Joint Mainland-Hong Kong Mediation Centre; the Nepal International ADR Centre; the A+ ADR Centre, Ankara, Oakwell Mediation Centre, Lagos and the Thailand Arbitration Centre; he is a Senior International Mediation Expert (SIME) of the International Dispute Resolution & Risk Management Institute (PRC).

Dr. Francis Law is the President of Hong Kong Mediation Centre (HKMC), Founding Chairman of Mainland - Hong Kong Joint Mediation Center (MHJMC), Founding Chairman of the International Dispute Resolution and Risk Management Institute (IDRRMI), President of the Academy of International Dispute Resolution and Professional Negotiation (AIDRN), Past Chairman of Asian Mediation Association (AMA), Vice-Chairman of Guangdong, Hong Kong and Macau Mediation Alliance (GHMMA).

Francis is an experienced international business consultant and expert of dispute resolution. He has more than 30 years of experience in public administration management, human resources, conflict management and corporate development. He has the expertise in organizational development, competency building, leadership development, performance management and executive coaching.

Francis is the Lead Trainer and the Lead Assessor of the Dispute Resolution profession in Hong Kong, China and other Asia countries. He is the Adjunct Senior Lecturer of the LLM / MA courses of Macau University of Science and Technology and City University of Macau and Heng Seng Management College of Hong Kong. He has trained up thousands of coaches, assessors, trainers and professionals in relation to conflict resolution, negotiation and workplace mediation, including government officials, lawyers, social workers and other professionals in conjunction with Universities in Hong Kong, in the mainland and overseas. He trained over 2000 mediators, 100 Assessors, Coaches and Trainers globally. He also assists Arbitration and Mediation Institutions in Asia to set up mediation policy, design mediation training and establish the assessment and disciplinary mechanism. With the support from the Department of Justice of Hong Kong and the China Council for the Promotion of International Trade / China Chamber of International Commerce (CCPIT / CCOIC) Mediation Center, he co-founded the Mainland - Hong Kong Joint Mediation Center (MHJMC) which is the first diversified cross-border commercial disputes resolution platform in 2015. In January 2018, the Shenzhen Qianhai Cooperation Zone People's Court, MHJMC and the Shenzhen Court of International Arbitration jointly constructed the Belt & Road International Commercial Court-Connected Mediation Centre of Qianhai. It is the first Mediation-Litigation conversion center aimed at effectively resolving the Belt and Road and international commercial disputes.
